TITOLO DELLA TESI: Obligations erga omnes and their relationship to peremptory norms of general international law

ABSTRACT DELLA TESI:

The research seeks to assess the relationship between obligations erga omnes (rules owed to the international community as a whole) and peremptory norms of general international law (jus cogens). How these distinct concepts are seen through the lens of state practice and opinio juris (belief of a legal rule by subjects of international law) will be explored considering recent developments in jurisprudence and conclusions made by the international law commission (ilc draft conclusions on jus cogens, 2022) an analysis of state practice and opinio juris will be taken as to how international legal actors view rules erga omnes and their relationship to other concepts such as peremptory norms of general international law (jus cogens) and the principle of cooperation.
